The Beaver Institute is happy to offer a limited supply of BeaverCorps scholarships for individuals facing financial hardship. Due to the large influx of BeaverCorps applicants, the Beaver Institute will prioritize scholarship awards for individuals who are located in underserved areas and are ready to begin the training program within 30 days of acceptance of a scholarship award. To qualify for a scholarship award extension, you must submit this form to the Beaver Institute within 30 days of your initial award acceptance. Scholarship award extensions are not guaranteed, and the award amount may be adjusted based on available funding at the time the extension is requested.

Please explain why you are seeking an award extension and how you plan to fund your initial payment for the BeaverCorps training in the next 30 days. If you can not submit your initial payment in this timeframe you will forfeit your scholarship and must reapply when you are prepared to begin the course. (250 words or less)
